POWERFUL STORIES BY TODAY'S YOUNG MEN

James F. Warne

“THESE STORIES HAVE CONVINCED ME THAT ALL OF US WILL BE CHALLENGED IN SOME LIFE-CHANGING WAY.”

JAMES F. WARNE was impressed by the stories he heard from high school classmates. In the summer before his junior year, he contacted a select group of recent graduates and current students, and persuaded them to submit their personal stories for publication in Character for Tomorrow. This collection of inspiring stories is the result of his effort.
